YUAN ASKED TO ENTER IN ENTENTE AS SIXTH ALLY

England, Russia and France unite to draw monarchy in world-girding nation's pact. PEACE WITH JAPAN DEEMED PURPOSE. Integrity of China, Basis of Parley; Attitude of Japan Problem for the Diplomats to Solve.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Great Britain, France and Russia have united in an effort to draw China to the entente alliance, in order to prevent possible action in the future between Japan and China and to preserve the peace of the Far East. It is China's policy to the plan military participation in the present war is not expected.

Negotiations thus far are in a conversational stage at Peking, with no indication as to China's attitude. Although the United States is being kept informed, its diplomatic representatives at Peking and European capitals are refraining from participation. This sensational turn in Far Eastern affairs on the eve of the proposed change by China from a republic to a monarchy has been the subject of confidential exchanges between the allied powers during the last week, but only became known here today.

JAPAN QUIETNESS. Japan, so far as is known, has not yet been consulted. If Japan knows of the plans unofficially there is nothing here to indicate what her position will be. Although Great Britain, France and Russia joined Japan in representations to China to postpone the establishment of a monarchy because of the present disturbed condition of affairs, it is understood here that step by the allies is understood here not to have been initiated because of the monarchy question. It was considered essential by the allies that such arrangements be made in the Far East as would permanently safeguard their interests.

The impending change in China's form of government has rendered the situation somewhat acute. Fear of revolution in China and the possibility of Japanese interference to preserve peace have been impressed upon Japan's people to an extent that Japan's absence from interference with China, Japan's attitude is not clear as yet, but two possibilities are considered here as plausible:

First—That Japan will join in the movement on the theory that her paramount interests in China will not suffer an abridgment through the future actions of the allies.

Second—That Japan will remain aloof from any agreement viewing even the future entrance of China as an ally as not altering Japan's right to independent action in the Far East wherever her interests are affected.

MRS. GALT'S AGENT SNUBBED ON PARIS FASHION BLACKLIST HIS GERMAN ORIGIN BLAMED

MRS. NORMAN GALT, WHOSE AGENT IN PARIS HAS BEEN BLACKLISTED BY DRESSMAKERS' SYNDICATE, WITH THE RESULT THAT A DIPLOMATIC ISSUE IS THREATENED.

Threat to Raise New Diplomatic Issue Alleged, and in Meantime Bride-to-Be Lacks Gowns

PARIS, Nov. 19.—The Paris Dressmakers' Syndicate has blacklisted two American customers of German origin, one of them a woman named Kurzman, reported to have been commissioned to buy gowns for Mrs. Norman Galt, who is to be the bride of President Wilson, according to Gustav Tey's newspaper L'Ouvrier.

The newspaper avers Kurzman has threatened to raise a diplomatic question because of the syndicate's refusal to accept orders from him. "L'Ouvrier" declares, however, that each house from which he ordered gowns has offered to supply them with its commitments to Mrs. Galt without having them pass through the hands of an intermediary.

Fair Point, president of the Dressmakers' Syndicate, is absent from Paris. His confidential secretary, however, confirmed the statement that Kurzman has threatened to raise a diplomatic question over the denigration of the syndicate to fill his orders for gowns, which he maintains are intended for Mrs. Galt.

AIR BATTLE IS FOUGHT AT LUNEVILLE

PARIS, Nov. 19.—There has been spirited fighting in Alsace, accompanied by the throwing of hand grenades, according to the announcement given out this afternoon by the French war office.

HAMMOND IS CENSURED BY COMMITTEE

Two Reports Filed, One More Severe Than Other

Street Work, Alleged Bribe Offer, Are Features

Two reports, one, the majority, finding that "Councilman" William Hammond Jr. of Alameda is open to severe criticism as a public official, and the other characterizing the whole row as a "fight of the political push," were filed with Mayor Frank H. Bartlett this morning. The first, named report was filed by Greene Majors, Rev. C. L. Mears and Carter Tevis. The second is signed by Judge R. B. Tappan.

These men were appointed as a committee of citizens to prove the charges which Mayor Bartlett had made against Hammond, and which were recently aired at a public hearing in the city hall. The committee had no legal powers, and therefore made no recommendations in its report.

Regarding the political end of the case, Judge Tappan says: "Hammond is the ostensible leader of our local 'push' at the present time. He obtained the present ostensible control by fulfilling his boast that he would win at the last primary as a business man and at the city election he obtained ostensible control of the board of councilmen and the push."

"You, Mr. Mayor, were one of the Hammond push at the late city election. You were his choice for mayor. Had this not been the case you would not have been our chief magistrate today. You are now divorced from Alameda's political push."

To the conquered belong the tools. It is either you or Hammond that will be totally submerged at the next election.

Regarding the various charges made against Hammond, the majority report reads: "IMMUNITY TO GAMBLERS. 'Chief of Police Conrad's testimony could not be interpreted in any other way than that an effort was being made to keep gambling in Alameda, and Mr. Hammond's connection with that effort seems to have been of his own seeking.'"

MONEY UPON STREETS. "Testimony showed that Mr. Hammond, chairman of the street committee, had sent large numbers of men to work on the street commissioner with a card to the commissioner to put beer to work. Some $3700 was paid out by the city under this plan of extra money for extra work."

ATTEMPT TO RAISE PRICE. "Testimony showed Mr. Hammond to have been very active in trying to get the annual contract for doing the scavenger work for the Alameda public schools raised from $18 to $25 per month. The city charter declares such act by any official of the city to be one of malfeasance, with the penalty of removal from office made mandatory."

CITY PAYING HIS BILLS. "Outside of the bare statement by the mayor that three or four dollars of Mr. Hammond's personal bills for telephone service were paid by the city nothing further was brought out. Such practice is very bad."

OFFERING TO SPLIT "50-50." "This was the most serious charge of all, made with any corroborating evidence, and if true, cannot be too severely condemned. It was vehemently denied by Mr. Hammond. If Mr. Hammond were not charged with any other offenses in this inquiry, the alleged attempted bribery of the mayor might have been dismissed as idle talk or a misapprehension on the part of the mayor. But, under all the circumstances, the 50-50 split charge seems to have been made by Mr. Hammond, or the accused city councilman is guilty of very serious conduct in this bribery charge; the mayor, if Mr. Hammond is innocent of it, but the latter, if the mayor has truly spoken."

$200,000 Auto Plant Will Be Built Here After negotiations extending over several months, M. M. Jones, secretary of the Industrial Bureau of the county, announced this morning the establishment of a new automobile factory in Oakland. The Chevrolet Automobile Company has purchased seven acres in this city and plans the immediate construction of a $200,000 building, to be the main factory for all coast and Oriental trade. The factory will be a Class A three-story building.

Fortified Pacific Is Urged by Naval Man NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Preparedness from the naval point of view was discussed today before the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers by Captain A. P. Niblack, U. S. N., vice-president of the society. Captain Niblack urged the importance of fortifying the Pacific coast and in particular the need for fortifying the navy.

Two British gunboats were sunk in the Mediterranean off the Egyptian coast, by German submarines. Official announcement of this effect was made by the Admiralty today. The statement reads: "One of our submarines, on November 5, on the North African coast, sank by a torpedo, the British auxiliary cruiser Para."

'Justice Prevailed: Gov. Spry

Governor Spry of Utah, in a telegram to President Wilson, gave his reasons for declining to grant the President's second request for a stay of execution of the sentence of death for Hillstrom. The governor said in part: "September 30 you requested a stay of execution of the sentence to give the Swedish minister an opportunity to present his view of the case. Upon the same day, at your request only, on the assumption that you were in possession of facts not presented to the board, I granted a reprieve."

"Because of the absence of any showing, the board terminated the reprieve. The conflict thereupon was upon the 18th of October, re-sentenced by the court to be shot November 19."

"Forty-six days after the granting of the reprieve and at the eleventh hour, you, as the President, without stating any reasons therefor, again wired, urging a thorough reconsideration of the case because of its importance and the justice and advisability of such a course."

"Your interference in the case may have elevated it to an undue importance and the receipt of thousands of threatening letters demanding the release of Hillstrom, regardless of his guilt or innocence, may have had a peculiar importance to it, but the case is important in Utah only as establishing, after a fair and impartial trial, the guilt of one of the perpetrators of one of the most heinous murders ever committed in this state. It is also important by reason of the fact that this case has had more careful and painstaking consideration at the hands of the proper officials of Utah than any other like case in the history of the state."

"As to your suggestion that justice requires further consideration of the case, I earnestly submit that the immunities contained, not only in your message to me, but also in your message to the president of the American Federation of Labor, that this convict had not had justice in the courts of this state is not justified. Three groups of attorneys have represented Hillstrom in the proceedings before the District Court, the Supreme Court and the board of pardons. No fair-minded person acquainted with the record has any doubt of Hillstrom's guilt."

'I Die Innocent: Hillstrom

Joseph Hillstrom made the following statement a few hours before his sentence was executed:

"Tomorrow at sunrise I die, a martyr to the cause for which I have fought throughout my life. I have lost all hope, but when my case comes, to the tragic climax it will find me no less a man than I have been all along. I reiterate that I have lived like an artist and will die like one. My death is but one step higher on the ladder of the fight for fair trial for workmen and I give it gladly. Although my friends have fought for a commutation of my sentence, I doubt if I would accept it. I don't want that. I want vindication. I want to go forth from this prison a free man, able to face the world and laugh at it. I want the world to know that I did not commit the Morrison murder."

"The country, the governor and the state have demanded of me that I disclose the name of that pure woman over whom I was shot. It is only public curiosity that wants to know that. As evidence that I respect the name of that woman, that I respect her honor and that of her husband, I refuse to disclose her name. I freely give my life rather than do this and clear myself at her expense."

"What does my life amount to? I have many friends, but no near relatives who will mourn my untimely death. There is no one to care what becomes of me aside from the friends who have fought so hard to clear me."

"And right now while this splendid opportunity presents itself I take advantage of it to bid them all goodbye; to you, all my friends spread from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific coast, to you who have sent me so many letters of faith and love to advance the cause dearest to your hearts and mine. I bid a fond farewell. Farewell to you all."

"Closing, I wish to say to the world that the day of my vindication is coming and may God grant that it be not far distant. It will come—it always comes to an innocent man—but this time too late to save me."

HILLSTROM EXECUTED AT HIS OWN CALL, 'FIRE!'

Eleventh-Hour Story of Alibi Fails to Move Executive to Grant New Respite to Condemned

"NEVER HAVE DONE WRONG," HE CRIES

His Momentary Effort to Fight Off Guards Is Soon Followed by a Calm, Stolid Manner.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 19.—Joseph Hillstrom, convicted of the murder of John G. Morrison, a grocer and his son, Arlin, and twice the object of President Wilson's pleas for clemency, was executed by shooting at the state penitentiary here at 7:42 a. m. today. Under the Utah law he was allowed to choose between shooting and hanging.

When the officers came to get Hillstrom he broke down and started to struggle with them, but when he saw the sheriff he calmed down and threw up his hands. Accompanied by the officers he walked to the death chair. After he had anything to say, he said: "Gentlemen, I die with a clear conscience. I never did anything wrong in my life. I die fighting, not like a coward. Well, I'm going; good-bye."

When the officer started to give the command to fire Hillstrom yelled "Fire!" The squad fired and the bullet pierced his heart. He was dead in one minute and ten seconds after the volley was fired.

CLAIMS ALIBI. At 6 o'clock this morning the members of the board of pardons received a telegram from Seattle saying that William Busby of that city had sworn to affidavits saying he was with Hillstrom all of the night on which the murders for which Hillstrom was sentenced were committed and that Hillstrom was innocent. A similar message it was said, had been sent to President Wilson.

Attorneys for Hillstrom immediately asked the governor to grant a temporary respite. Members of the pardon board were inclined to think that the alleged affidavits were merely a new ruse to delay the execution. The board held a hurried conference and decided not to interfere with the execution.

The board held a hurried conference and decided not to interfere with the execution. The board held a hurried conference and decided not to interfere with the execution. The board held a hurried conference and decided not to interfere with the execution.

President Wilson twice appealed for further respite for Hillstrom and the Swedish minister also intervened. The President's second request was denied by Governor William Spry as based on no new facts.

CALM THROUGH NIGHT. Hillstrom's last night was passed quietly in his cell under the eyes of the death watch. Although somewhat nervous and showing less than his accustomed vigor, he remained calm and conversed at times with others present. He declined to see a minister, saying he had worked out his own religion, was satisfied with it, and would not be helped by seeing a minister. He retired about 10 o'clock and went to sleep at once.

Although he continued to protest that he could prove his innocence, he granted a new trial. Hillstrom would not utter a word about how he felt.

300 DEAD IN BATTLE FOR SINGLE CITY

NOGALES, Ariz., Nov. 19.—The battle for possession of Hermosillo, capital of Sonora, has been in progress since late yesterday, according to advices received at Nogales, Sonora, opposite here, by Villa of officials.

It also was claimed that General Obregon, the Carranza leader, was repulsed in an engagement near Cananea.

General Villa personally is directing the attack on the garrison of General Dieguez at Hermosillo. Governor Randall stated, after messages from him said that the city was completely surrounded.

Villa officials were reported here to have confiscated a consignment of copper, said to be valued at approximately $500,000, which arrived at Nogales from the mines of the Cananea Consolidated Copper Company.

One elderly woman was shot by soldiers at Nogales, Sonora, during a celebration last night during which shouts of "Viva Carranza" were said to have been made by the soldiers. No one was arrested by the Villa authorities.

A lengthy proclamation, in which General Villa denounced General Carranza and the United States Government, was issued by Governor Randall last night.

Gallur Given Life Term in Prison Damascus C. Gallur was sentenced to life imprisonment in San Quentin this morning by Superior Judge Wells for the murder of Augustus Heinrichs, on which charge he was found guilty last Monday.

Million Attendance in Sixteen Days Is Goal SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Attendance figures for the Panama-Pacific Exposition passed the 17,000,000 mark today. There remains practically sixteen days in which the exposition may reach the 18,000,000 mark set for it by Oct. 1, a same time ago.

REAR ADMIRAL HISSSED BY U. C. WOMEN BERKELEY, November 19.—Hisses from the women's section of the student meeting at Harvard University, University of California, greeted Rear Admiral William I. Fullam this morning when he declared that "women should be proud to give sons who can die for their country."

The total of members brought into the chamber of commerce membership campaign today reached 862, the teams turning in 122 new memberships at the noon luncheon.

This brings the total membership of the chamber up to 2199, leaving only 301 to gain to reach the goal of 2500.

Energetic efforts from dawn till darkness tomorrow will conclude the first week of the great Chamber of Commerce membership campaign, in which since Monday, business and professional men have been enlisted.

The teams assembled for luncheon today at Hotel Oakland. Final instructions were issued to the workers.

D. H. McLaughlin, local business man, presided at the session, and reports were heard from every team captain. The nature of the day was a challenge issued by Postmaster J. W. Osborn, so far the holder of the record for new memberships among the team captains. Rosborough flatly defied any team to rival his, and promised tomorrow to bring in more memberships than any two other teams.

Rev. S. Smith, director of the campaign, asserted that the results of the campaign so far have been fully up to his expectations.

"The week's campaign," he said, "started with more than ordinary success. Now, at the end of the campaign, is the time to put in the final team. Oakland has the business men and the future. All she needs is to display the spirit that means to ahead. Mr. Albert's talk yesterday showed that better than any word of mine can tell it. Senator Phelan presided at the session, and told us too, that the future of the city depended on the spirit of the men who push forward its affairs."

The Oakland spirit is here, as the splendid work of the campaign has shown. Now finish it! Keep up the fight for a little while, and let us have a real "Chamber of Commerce."

Tomorrow will conclude the first week of the campaign. The figures of the first week will be tallied on the giant recorder of the spirit.

FATE OF MONASTIR REMAINS UNKNOWN

Little Hope in England That It May Escape Bulgarians.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The fate of Monastir is still a puzzle. It is believed that the city will be captured by the Bulgarians. There is a possibility, however, that the invaders will not dare to make such an extension of their line.

Left in the dark as to the actual progress of the Anglo-French campaign in the Near East, the British public can only hope the enterprising will soon have such strong forces there that they will be able to make a successful stand. Some substance is given this hope by unofficial news that the Anglo-French force is now assuming formidable proportions, as well as by hints that Italy is on the verge of actual participation in the Balkan campaign.

The retreat of the Serbians toward the Albanian border is causing increased uneasiness at Athens.

The British council has returned from Paris without giving any indication of the outcome of its deliberations with the French committee.

Venice Assailed by Air Raiders

Bombs Dropped Upon Several Forts

VIENNA, Nov. 18.—Venice has again been bombarded by Austrian airships. Official announcement was made here today that an aerial squadron attacked military establishments of that city yesterday afternoon. The announcement follows:

Navy headquarters at Venice announced that on the afternoon of November 18 one of our sea planes on a reconnaissance mission dropped bombs on the forts at San Nicola and Alberoni and the arsenal station and several barracks at Venice.

Notwithstanding the heavy fire of anti-aircraft guns and the attacks of three hostile aeroplanes, our squadron returned with complete safety.

Indian Mutiny Halts Advance of British

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The British advance against Bagdad has been checked south of Kut in Mesopotamia by a mutiny of Indian troops, who refused to march further against Bagdad because of the presence in that city of objects sacred to their religion, according to a Frankfurter Zeitung dispatch from Constantinople, the Overseas News Agency says.

The strike does not continue their agitation for a holy war in Southern Persia and Schat-el-Arab, and important events are said to be impending," the quoted dispatch says.

Serbs Driven Back From Babuna Pass

PARIS, Nov. 18.—A Saloniki dispatch announcing the general retreat of the Serbs on the southwestern front, after the capture of Babuna Pass by the Bulgarians, is without official confirmation, says a Havas dispatch from Athens filed yesterday. The only fact established is the evacuation of Prilep by the Serbs. The abandonment of Babuna Pass has been expected in Athens military circles for several days and it was not considered possible for the Serbs, notwithstanding their heroic defense, to resist longer repeated Bulgarian attacks, especially as they threatened envelopment by a movement from Tetovo and Kisevo.

The Serbians probably will retire to the heights between Prilep and Monastir, the inhabitants of which are taking refuge in Albania and Greek territory. Large numbers have arrived at Florina, Greece, but the more well-to-do are going to Saloniki. The Serbian army is expected to retreat toward Albania. It is estimated there are 50,000 Serbs in the Monastir region opposed to more than 80,000 Bulgarians.

5000 SERBS CAPTURED.
BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The capture of 5000 Serbians was announced by the war office today.

HILLSTROM SHOT
BY EXECUTIONERSDeclares His Innocence, and Cries "Fire!" as Rifles
Are Loaded.

ceived his bullet wound or where he

The city remained quiet throughout the night. There were occasional rumors of prospective violence, but all proved to be unfounded. Local I. W. W. members had a meeting at their hall and another in the streets. Attendance was not heavier than usual and the remarks of the speakers were rather less intense than usual.

SUIT ODD INCIDENT.

Officers are much perplexed by a peculiar incident that developed last night in connection with arrangements for the execution of Hillstrom today. Hillstrom expressed a desire to wear a dark suit, which had been under lock and key with his other effects. Deputy Warden A. C. Tre of the state prison got out the suit and examined it preparatory to having it pressed. He discovered the name "Morrison," which is the name of the man of whose murder Hillstrom was convicted, written in indelible ink on the white lining of the suit. When he reported to Hillstrom that he had found a name on the suit, Hillstrom inquired whether the name was "Morrison," and said he believed the name had been placed there by "some cheap detective at the county jail."

Hillstrom said the suit had been bought for him by a friend after his arrest. The suit, however, does not fit Hillstrom. It is much too large for him and fits men about the size of Morrison, who was much larger than Hillstrom. Mrs. J. G. Morrison, widow of the murdered man, says her husband had a suit similar to the one under investigation.

Another suit was obtained for Hillstrom to wear at his execution.

DIED LIKE A REBEL.

Hillstrom sent several farewell telegrams yesterday. One of them, addressed to W. L. Hayward, secretary-treasurer of the Industrial Workers of the World, Chicago, read:

"It is 100 miles from here to Wyoming. Could you arrange to have my body hauled to the state line to be buried? Don't want to be found dead in the state of Utah."

Another telegram to Hayward read: "Goodbye, Bill. I will die like a true-blue rebel. Don't waste any time in mourning—organize."

A message to Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, New York, read:

"Composed new song last week, with music, dedicated to the dove of peace. It's coming. And now good-bye, Gurley, dear. I have lived like a rebel and I shall die like a rebel."

Other messages were sent to I. W. W. members in Minneapolis and San Francisco.

Swears to Alibi
For Hillstrom
Worker Signs Affidavit
Declaring Innocence

SEATTLE, Nov. 19.—According to a story told today at Industrial Workers of the World headquarters here, Wm. Busky, a German American, aged 21, while watching a parade of Industrial Workers last night, was overheard to say that he knew Hillstrom was not guilty. Busky was questioned by Industrial Workers who heard him and then was taken to headquarters, where he made affidavit that he was with Hillstrom continually from 2 p. m. to 10 p. m. on the day of the murder and that he and Hillstrom were seeking work at the Murray (Utah) smelter.

The affidavit was made before Thomas Whitehead, secretary of the I. W. W. here. Telegrams containing a summary of Busky's affidavit were sent at 2 o'clock this morning to Governor Sny, President Wilson and O. N. Hilton, Hillstrom's attorney.

Busky's affidavit was sworn to before John Chapelle, notary public, and not before Secretary Whitehead, who is not a notary. Busky signed with a cross, being unable to write.

The I. W. W. headquarters were crowded with men all morning and many speeches denouncing the execution of Hillstrom were made. Busky was not at headquarters during the meeting and newspapers were unable to find him. It is said he lives in a South End lodging house. Men who have seen him describe him as illiterate and in poor health.

POPE'S NEPHEW IN DANGER.

ROME, Nov. 19.—Count Persico, a nephew of Pope Benedict, had a narrow escape during the recent raid by Austrian airplanes on Brescia. One of the missiles dropped by the aviators fell within a few yards of where the count was standing.

Scent Mystery in Arrest of Chemist

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—United States Secret Service Agent Harry Moffitt communicated today with Chief William Flynn at Washington information that there was something very mysterious regarding the operations of Peter Yonke, 27 years old, an Austrian arrested by the police charged with tapping a gas main of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The possibility that some of the experiments conducted by Yonke at his laboratories at 27 Hartford street and 741 Lincoln way might be for the purpose of bomb making has attracted the attention of the secret service men. Moffitt found chemicals at the Lincoln way house, the nature of which he was unable to determine.

British Caustic in Treatment of Wilson

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Punch publishes a cartoon entitled "A Matter of Routine," showing President Wilson seated at his official desk. He has a pen in his right hand and a dispatch in the other which reads: "Ancona sunk by Austrian submarine; American citizens murdered." The president, half turned in his chair, addressing himself to his secretary in another room, says:

"This calls for a note, Mr. Secretary. Just bring me a copy of our number one note to Germany, 'humanity' series."

Assistant Secretary of Labor Pursues Quiet Inquiry of Conditions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Assistant Secretary of Labor John B. Denmore is registered at the Carlight Hotel and although it is believed he is making merely one of his periodical visits, he went into consultation this morning with Anthony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration. The investigation into the smuggling of Chinese into this port on the Pacific Mail lines and the possibility of immigration officers being implicated in the plotting, has attracted attention at Washington and it is understood that a quiet inquiry is being conducted by Denmore on behalf of his superiors. United States Attorney John W. Preston did not know of Denmore's arrival until this morning and declared that he had not heard that the secretary was coming. He is engaged in shaping up his evidence for presentation before the grand jury. He said: "It is not true that any indictments have been returned and it is not true that $1,000,000 has been spent in connection with the smuggling of Chinese here. The grand jury will meet again on Monday and we will continue the presentation of evidence. When indictments will be returned I could not even guess."

WEAK AND TIRED WOMAN Tells How Vinol Made Her Strong.

Oakland women who are weak, run-down and suffer from the consequent effects of such a condition, will be interested in Mrs. Odell's letter. She says: "I am a farmer's wife and was all run-down, weak, tired and suffered from indigestion, and sometimes it seemed as though I could not keep around and do my housework. I had taken many medicines without benefit. One day I saw Vinol advertised, and made up my mind to try it. I have taken four bottles and have gained seven pounds in weight, am much stronger, and feel many years 'younger than before.'" Sarah Odell, Lockport, N. Y.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, run-down women so quickly is because it contains a delicious combination of the three most successful tonics, peptonate of iron to enrich and revitalize the blood, the strengthening, body-building elements of fresh cod's livers without oil and beef peptone.

We want to say to every weak, run-down, overworked woman in Oakland that we will return your money if Vinol fails to help you as it did Mrs. Odell. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.—Advertisement.

MODEL CHARTER IS THEME OF LEAGUE

National Municipal Experts in Session at Dayton Propose Changes.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 12.—Discussion of a model city charter took up all the time of the concluding sessions of the National Municipal League here today. The document was prepared by a committee of which William Dudley Poole of Richmond, Ind., was chairman and which has been working on the subject for two years. No set speeches were on the program today and in order to give the widest possible discussion to the charter all speakers were limited to five minutes in presenting their views.

commission and subsequent referendum election; giving cities power to levy taxes and assessments and to borrow money; to own and operate public utilities or to regulate those within its borders; and to unite city and county into one system of municipal government under certain circumstances.

With this as a basis it was proposed that the city council should be composed of from 5 to 15 members, elected at large on a non-partisan basis and if possible by a preferential vote based upon proportional representation. The term of each councilman was proposed as four years. The council would be given power to elect one of its members as mayor and to appoint a city manager, a clerk and a civil service commission. Councilmen would be forbidden to deal with any one connected with the administration's service except through the city manager and any attempt to give orders or otherwise interfere with the administration of the city was made a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment.

The charter provided that the mayor should be recognized as head of the city for the purpose of serving civil processes by the governor of the state for military purposes and at all ceremonies.

FIXES ELECTION DAY.

The document provided that municipal elections should be held on a day other than those on which state and national elections are held. Names of candidates, it was suggested, should be printed in alphabetical order and in rotation on different sets of ballots. The ballots would be so combined as to have the fewest possible ballots having the same order of names in each tablet.

Provisions for recall of elective officers and for initiative and referendum or of finances were incorporated in the charter, but the report of the committee showed that its favor of these provisions was not unanimous.

The city manager was given broad executive powers and made responsible to the city council. His term of office was made indefinite and he would be removable by the council only after a public hearing if he had held office for six months. Choice of a manager was not limited to the city or state, the committee pointing out that the German system of advertising for a burgomaster had been "highly successful."

The charter provided administrative departments of law, health, education, finance, safety and works with a director for each, appointed by the city manager and removable by him. These directors would be immediately responsible to the city manager and at his service for reports, recommendations and information.

The civil service would be administered by a board of three selected by the council and removal of a four-city vote of that body only after written charges had been filed and a hearing held thereon. Six-year terms were provided for the commissioners with the idea that this would prevent any current influence upon it by a possibly corrupt or partisan council.

Provisions as to finance proposed establishment of a budget system with the limitations that would make difficult any shifts of appropriations except in emergency. How bonds might be issued, taxes levied and loans made were also detailed in this section, and it further provided safeguards in the way of publicity for all contracts and purchases involving more than a stated expenditure.

The model charter treated public utilities at length, providing methods by which the city might acquire ownership of these or regulate privately owned gas, water and electric companies. The franchise was limited to thirty years, although it was pointed out that the expense of establishing elaborate utilities such as elevated railroads, might make a term of fifty years advisable. Unusual and duplicating franchises would be repealed by the model charter and all grants would be made with full provision for municipal ownership at stated intervals in their life or at expiration.

Members of the committee which prepared the model charter besides Mr. Poole, were: M. N. Baker, Chicago; Richard S. Childs and Delos F. Wilson, New York; John A. Fairlie, University of Illinois; Mayor Farley, Cleveland; A. H. Hutton, Western Reserve University; Herman H. James, Austin, Texas; A. Lawrence Lowell and William E. Munro, Harvard University; Robert Treat Paine, Boston, and Clinton Rodgers Woodruff, Philadelphia.

'BLACKHANDER' IS ADJUDGED GUILTY

Several Hours' Deliberation
Precedes Verdict by San Jose Jury.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 12.—After deliberating several hours and coming back into the courtroom to have portions of the testimony re-read, the jury in the first of the so-called blackhand cases brought in a verdict of guilty against Gony Diffranco, a San Jose barber accused of attempting to extort $250 from A. Trapani, vice-president of the Western Fish Company of San Francisco, by means of a threatening letter. Attorneys for the defendant served notice that they intended to move for a new trial. The court then announced that the case of Joseph Vetrano, arrested with Diffranco, would be set for trial on Monday. An incident which would have been amusing, but for the fact that it nearly precipitated a panic, occurred while District Attorney A. M. Free was closing the argument for the prosecution.

There had been considerable apprehension on the part of many persons in the audience that attempts would be made to carry out death threats received by the district attorney, and auditors were more than ordinarily alert when the prosecution started a bitter arraignment of Carl Eisenheim, a San Francisco handwriting expert, who happened to be in San Jose in connection with a will contest, stepped into the courtroom. He carried a suspicious looking black bag in his hand. Some women in the courtroom believed that the promised bomb had arrived, and they scurried for the nearest door.

A panic might have ensued, but some one recognized the stranger and spoke to him.

WOULD SAVE MOOSE.

SEWARD, Alaska, Nov. 12.—Game Warden Baughman has recommended fencing of a section of Kasliuk river, on Katchemak bay, to save the lives of moose. Baughman says that every winter a hundred moose are drowned when they try to cross a place three miles wide of the ice, which breaks in places when they reach the middle of the crossing.

Claims Was Blocked in Reform Fight

SAN JOSE, Nov. 12.—That he had been opposed by the district attorney of San Francisco in an attempt to have the Redlight inspection and abatement law enforced was the assertion of Attorney Bascom Johnson in an address before the National City League last night. District Attorney A. M. Free of this county who has been very active in enforcing the Redlight law was present and also delivered an address.

YOUTHS MADE TO EMIGRATE.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 12.—Twenty-one well dressed young men arrested in local houses and hotels were brought into court and each sentenced to serve 150 days in the county prison. Sentence was then suspended upon their promise to leave San Jose.

SUES TO FORECLOSE.

MARTINEZ, Nov. 12.—Suit to foreclose a mortgage of $50,000 was filed in the Superior Court yesterday by the Western States and San Francisco Life Insurance Company of San Francisco against the Berkeley Park Company.

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present, your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache. This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the enfeebled membranes.

If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving this trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.

ANTI-HISS RULING
ADOPTED BY A. F. L.*Chairman to Expel Those Who Would Silence Orators.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—The A. F. of L. has adopted a resolution which caused a spirited fight on the floor of the American Federation of Labor convention yesterday. The resolution, which was adopted by a vote of 1,000 to 500, provides that any orator who attempts to silence the speakers by his own means shall be expelled from the convention.

that military training would be a good thing "if we want young men instead of long-haired girls."

"That's right," he shouted, as hisses were heard. "There's plenty of peace around here!" A resolution opposing military training in the schools was defeated.

Andrew Furuseth presented a labor side of the seamen's bill at yesterday's session. Today committee reports are being presented.

MEDIATORS NAMED.

CLIFTON, Ariz., Nov. 19.—Business men of the Clifton, Morenci and Metcalf districts have appointed a committee of mediation in an effort to break the deadlock of the strike of the miners and the mine managers of the Shannon-Detroit and Arizona copper companies.

The strike began September 11. The managers, now in El Paso, insist upon the elimination of alleged influence of the Western Federation of Miners before discussing grievances, and the strikers demand consideration of their grievances without reference to their union.

GIVES MUSICAL RECITAL.

RICHMOND, Nov. 19.—Miss Beulah Masters of Berkeley, assisted by Miss Alvah Berry and Miss June Hitchcock, gave a musical recital last evening at the Bank hall.

WITHOUT CLEW IN
DROVILLE MURDER*Many Theories Held, But No Progress Reported in Mystery.

OROVILLE, Nov. 19.—Another day passed with apparently no further progress made in unraveling the mystery attached to the murder of George Larsen. Sheriff McKee and Deputy Sheriff Chubbuck spent the entire day in Oregon Gulch at work upon the case. While it had been stated that an arrest was expected the officers returned without bringing anyone into custody, and announced that the day had been barren of results as far as getting definite clues.

It was persistently stated that Joseph Azevedo Jr., had disappeared. The officers denied that the youth was missing, stating that he was in and around the place. The report, however, persisted in spite of the denials made. It is known that Azevedo was not at home on Monday, his father stating that he had gone out after cattle.

The officers stated that there was no evidence to justify the arrest of young Azevedo, and declared that the fact that he was an ex-convict served to make the public suspicious, despite the fact that circumstances justifying an arrest were not present.

Some of those who are acquainted with the evidence in the case believe that the shooting followed an altercation or argument, and the crime was committed in a sudden fit of passion. Those holding to this opinion point to the fact that powder marks were found on Larsen's face as evidence of the fact that he was not waylaid and shot from ambush.

New Officers Seated

At their last meeting the members of the Querculi Club installed their new officers. Following the inauguration an inaugural banquet was held.

West.

TAFT, Cal., Nov. 19.—The contractor who posted notices on oil lands in the Elk Hills and Midway districts yesterday stating that the United States Navy Department had taken possession and forbidding exploration or location on said lands, received instructions from Washington yesterday to post no more notices. This action is taken here to mean that the federal government is prepared to listen to the protests of the California producers affected by the order withdrawing these lands.

Individual oil men are said to have received telegrams from Washington to the effect that only properties on which there has been no development will come under

by Short Circuit

TULARE, Nov. 19.—Late Saturday afternoon five cows were electrocuted on the Tagua ranch, north of Tulare. They were all standing with their heads through the wire fence eating the grass on the far side, one cow was nursing her calf, and another cow was scratching her back on a nearby telegraph pole. In some manner the cow rubbing against the pole among two wires together, and with a flash one of the wires burned off and dropped against the barbed wire through which the cows were feeding. Result, five dead cows and one dead calf, three of the cows being burned to a crisp.

WOMAN FACES TRIAL

DINUBA, Nov. 19.—At the close of her preliminary hearing in the Justice Court yesterday, Mrs. W. B. Hine of Richmond was bound over to the superior court on a charge of arson. The case grows out of the destruction by fire last month of a house and its contents, located on a ranch belonging to Mrs. Hine, situated a few miles from Dinuba. The place was heavily insured.

WOMAN ATTEMPTS TO END OWN LIFE*Girl Found Unconscious Near Auburn: Slashes Wrists With Knife.

AUBURN, Nov. 19.—Miss Mabel Cox of San Francisco, who was found unconscious in the Auburn ravine recently, attempted to commit suicide Wednesday night by slashing her wrists with a large butcher knife while she was in the custody of Matron Armstrong of the county jail.

Miss Cox was arrested on a complaint sworn to by her mother, charging her with being an inebriate, and was to have been examined yesterday afternoon in the Superior Court.

She was placed in the custody of the matron, after a preliminary hearing, and was kept in the home of the matron taking lunch.

Suffered For Years

There are many people who will be interested in the experience of Mrs. Julia Byard, Fort Benton, Mont. She writes:

"I suffered for years with gall-stones. A friend gave me a box of Frutula and Traxo. I started taking and all completely cured and feel better than I have felt for twenty years."

Mrs. Byard's testimony is similar to that of many who have given this remedy a chance to help them. Frutula is a powerful laxative for the intestinal organs, softening the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the congested waste in an easy, natural way. A single dose is usually sufficient to clearly indicate its efficacy. Traxo is a splendid tonic-alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion, and removes bile from the general circulation.

Frutula and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists. In Oakland they can be obtained at The Owl Drug Co. Stores.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19. — Business men, professional men and citizens in every walk of life, are falling to raise the $100,000 guarantee fund, which will be the first step in bringing to San Francisco the 1916 national Republican convention. The fund is already certain, according to the reports of the committee chairman this morning. The details of the work were related last evening by the special committee of 250, organized as the general working body of the campaign.

M. H. DeYoung addressed the committee, explaining various problems to be met. Chairman Scott spoke on the raising of the fund and active workers were appointed to take subscriptions.

Jose Saludo, a Mexican about 20 years of age, is under arrest at Fresno as a suspect in connection with the attempt to wreck Southern Pacific train No. 52 near Kerman late last night.

Officers last night doubted that Saludo had any accomplices and believe that his act is the result of feeble-minded hallucinations.

NEW SLOGAN IS OFFERED CITY ALBERT URGES CO-OPERATION OAKLAND PRAISED BY EXPERT

The men who will not co-operate in the upbuilding of Oakland have got to be ignored.

If Oakland would possess the best newspaper on the Pacific Coast, she has the opportunity. It needs but one thing—the full support of her best men. A large part of the value of a Chamber of Commerce depends on its ability to get work out of an indifferent minority.

Oakland's tax rate is one of the lowest among American cities.—From Allen D. Albert's speech on Oakland's future.

"Those who will not co-operate in the upbuilding of Oakland have got to be ignored." This motto, suggested by Allen D. Albert, president of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, as the slogan of the business men of this city, set 20 of them loudly cheering at yesterday's luncheon given at the Hotel Oakland under the joint auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club.

Albert predicted a brilliant future for Oakland, and said that it lay in the hands of the business men of this city to make it the metropolis of the state.

"Two things always are the subjects of kicks and complaints—administration and the Chamber of Commerce," he said. "The right city administration would be that which constantly reduces taxes and constantly increases expenditures. No Chamber of Commerce ever existed which satisfied all its members. If one ever should exist which satisfied all its members even for a day that would be the time for it to be because it would have become useless."

A large part of the value of a modern Chamber of Commerce depends upon its ability to get work out of the indifferent minority. The minority will always grumble, but the work will be done. Out of an observation which includes most of the large cities of the country, I have come to the conclusion that the value of the Chamber of Commerce bears a certain very interesting relation to the amount of grumbling it occasions.

"The city of today needs voice. It must make vocal its devotion to the general welfare. Its best voice is its newspaper. No newspaper can do this unless it is fully and completely the property of the men of Oakland."

"The best newspaper in Massachusetts is not in the largest city of Massachusetts, but in one of the smallest cities. If Oakland would possess the best newspaper of the Pacific Coast, she has the opportunity. For the fulfillment of this opportunity she needs merely the one thing—that its newspapers shall have the full support of its best men."

TAX RATE CONSIDERED.

The rate of tax upon the general property of Oakland for 1915 of estimated true value is as follows: This is one of the lowest tax rates among American cities. Out of the 25 cities next larger, five have a rate as low, or a little lower, and 20 have a higher rate. In other words, Oakland is the eleventh city among the first fifty in America with the lowest tax rate.

The net city indebtedness of Oakland in 1913 was $5,807,735. Properly compared, this was the smallest among cities of this class. Indianapolis, which has bought little, owes less. Washington, which has bought more, has half the debt of Indianapolis. The federal treasury, twenty-nine cities of the first fifty owe more than Oakland, and eighteen which owe less are all considerably smaller.

"The total assets and property of Oakland in 1913 had a value of $18,357,124. This is nearly $4,000,000 more than Toledo, the next largest city, and nearly $1,000,000 more than Indianapolis, which is the twenty-second city. Nevertheless, it is $4,250,000 less than the city of New York, which is the largest city, and $22,000,000 less than the city of Chicago, which is the second largest city. What is the explanation? It is the value of your present property. This department has been given property of an aggregate value of $11,500. The average police equipment for cities of this class has a value of more than $15,000.

"But the most striking saving is yet to be indicated. Oakland has a total school enrollment of 27,131. Of these, 10,000 are in the high school. As there are twelve grades, a maximum high school enrollment would be equal to 33,157 per cent of the total enrollment.

NOT IN HIGH SCHOOL.

Oakland enrolls but 14.8 per cent of her children in her secondary schools. In other words, there are just 5000 of Oakland's children who are not now in

Ship Bids Farewell; Lowers Old Glory

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Flashed by Marconi wireless, came a message of farewell to the people of San Francisco from the Great Northern steamship Minnesota, the largest ship flying the American flag, as she steamed between the Farallones and the Golden Gate last night on her way to Europe to pass from the dwindling American merchant marine to foreign registry.

Captain Thomas W. Garlick, commander of the steamship, bound from Seattle to Europe, sent the message that tells the story of one more loss to American shipping as a result of the La Follette seamen's act, and the elimination of the American flag from the Pacific.

Captain Garlick's words have the ring of personal sorrow, but they express the feelings of a nation. They are as follows:

To the Good People of San Francisco: The Great Northern steamship Minnesota, the finest ship that ever sailed to sea, and the largest ship flying the American flag, is now passing down your beautiful city, bound for a foreign country, never again to return with Old Glory floating from her stern.

The reason for this is well known to the business interests of the country. I bid you all farewell.

THOMAS W. GARLICK, Commander.

Believe Goodier Will Be Acquitted

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—A sealed verdict was rendered yesterday by the court-martial which tried Lieutenant Colonel Lewis E. Goodier on charges growing out of an investigation of the government aviation school at San Diego. It is the general opinion of those who watched the progress of the court-martial that Goodier will be acquitted. The findings will be forwarded to the Secretary of War and the verdict made known through his office.

Lieutenant Goodier was accused of stirring up dissent among the officers at the aviation school. During the course of the trial the management of the school was compared to "ward politicians" and Goodier counsel did not hesitate to criticize Colonel Samuel Reber, chief of aviation and Captain Arthur S. Cowan, commandant of the school.

Woman Freed, But Man Is Convicted

B. F. Woodson, a prominent local real estate dealer charged with having eloped with Mrs. Evelyn May Boeckel of Oakland a year ago was convicted at San Francisco.

Woodson was arrested at the residence of Mrs. Boeckel's husband, Otto L. Boeckel, an Oakland contractor who preferred a statutory charge against him, and Mrs. Boeckel, who stated that Woodson had stolen his wife and that he had sought for her in vain for nearly a year, finally locating the pair on a ranch near Lodi. He testified that he loved his wife.

The woman was recently tried and acquitted.

"CONFESSOR" FEEBLE-MINDED.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—John R. Burke, who sought to convince detectives of his sanity by showing that he was a feeble-minded man, was committed to an asylum.

Burke, who was charged with the murder of Frank Voortman, a Chicago politician, was brought to Chicago by a highway contractor. The auto struck an obstruction left in the road by the highway contractor. He sustained the loss of three teeth and lacerations on her face and hands.

Woman Is Hurlled Through Glass

WILLOWS, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Joseph Hoffman, aged 45, resident, was thrown through the windshield of the Hoffman auto, on the state highway, two miles from Willows last night as she was returning from a trip to a dance.

The auto struck an obstruction left in the road by the highway contractor. She sustained the loss of three teeth and lacerations on her face and hands.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 18.—Charges that Alvin H. Martin filed a general denial of the charges.

THANKSGIVING DAY

WILL COST LESS

Bill for Big Dinner Not So High This Year. Say Market Men.

Oakland's Thanksgiving dinner will be a trifle cheaper this year than it was in 1912, if present indications prove true. Oakland commission merchants said today that turkey will be all the way from one to three cents a pound cheaper next week than it was the corresponding week of last year. Inasmuch as the price of cranberries and other "trimmings" will go with the turkey, the whole bill will have a bit more cheer money with which to dissipate the day.

The commission merchants say that present indications are that there will be what is known as a "thirty-cent market." That is, turkeys will retail at or about twenty-five to thirty cents a pound. The wholesale price will range somewhere between twenty-five and twenty-eight cents. The very highest wholesale rate that might be reached, it is thought today, will be twenty-nine cents. This was the wholesale rate of last year, which made the retail price somewhere about thirty-two cents. The majority of the commission men believe, however, that the price will be lower.

"Cranberries," the all-important, will wholesale at from eleven to twelve cents a pound, practically the same rate as that of last year. Other "trimmings" will also cost an equal price to that of 1912.

It looks now as though the Thanksgiving dinner buyer will save money. "The wholesale price of turkeys will be anywhere from twenty-five to twenty-eight cents. It may be twenty-seven or even twenty-six. The 'trimmings' will not cost any more or any less than they did last year."

"Turkeys are plentiful this year, and they are better than last year's turkeys. They are apparently fatter and plumper, and all together more desirable."

"The price, of course, will be controlled more or less by the demand. I think that the demand will be normal. This is an indication of good times in the business world."

"Oakland, I'm sure, will eat its share of the national bird this year," he concluded.

Big shipments of turkeys from the country will begin early next week. Tuesday and Wednesday will see the retailers swarmed with the fowl, but a big early demand is expected to clean the markets long before Wednesday evening comes around.

BANKRUPTCY IS

PERIL, SAYS TAFT

Popular Government Without Knowledge Dangerous. Former President Fears.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—"The great danger I see ahead of popular government is bankruptcy due to the lack of popular knowledge of the issues and the 'right' to be an owner of a share in the government," said Mr. Taft. "The only ones who made gains through it were the efficiency and economy of my administration and its map is now being under three inches of dust. They had first to find out what kind of government we have. We need experts to do that and we still need experts. We're going now into a policy of preparedness and it is going to take a great deal of money and economy will have to be effected to provide the money."

Eastern Editor Asks Auditorium Picture

That the fame of the Oakland One Million Dollar Municipal Auditorium is becoming widespread is illustrated by the fact that Mr. Karl E. Hartman, managing editor of the Ladies Home Journal, a magazine with probably the largest circulation of any publication in the world, has written to Mayor Lavin requesting pictures and information regarding the Oakland auditorium. With his letter was enclosed a print, showing the interior of the building at the time of the opening night, "The Ball of a Thousand Colors," when more than 10,000 people were in attendance. This print was clipped from the American City Magazine, which deals with the municipalities of the world, and it occupied a prominent place, namely, the front page of said magazine.

Commissioner Anderson has forwarded photographs, not only of the interior of the building on the occasion mentioned, but of a number of other functions held there since its opening.

TALKS on TEETH

DR. J. B. SCHAFHIRT

A Guarantee That Means Something

For seven years I have been supplying the mouths of Oakland with good teeth. During this time my invention, The Schafhirt Rootless Teeth, has proved a great success, and, like all successful things, has called upon itself plenty of adverse criticism.

When I first advertised that I could make teeth without plates, whether the patient had any teeth of his own or not, some of the small non-advertising dentists said "It can't be done," but when they woke up and found that I was actually making Rootless Teeth their cry changed to "It's a fake."

Some people who made the mistake of asking their dentists about my work have been influenced by these biased opinions. Therefore I am going to do what to my knowledge no other dentist in Oakland has dared to do—give a money-back guarantee.

Let me make you a set of Schafhirt Rootless Teeth (it makes no difference whether you have any teeth of your own or not), and if they are not satisfactory return them and I will refund your money.

I will back this guarantee with a bond. Could anything be more fair?

GET RID OF VILE CATARRH

This shows the Hyomei outfit just as you get it at drug stores.

Inside of this box is a bottle of Hyomei, a hard rubber pocket inhaler, that will last a life time, and simple instructions for ending catarrh.

Into the inhaler you pour a few drops of magical Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-mei).

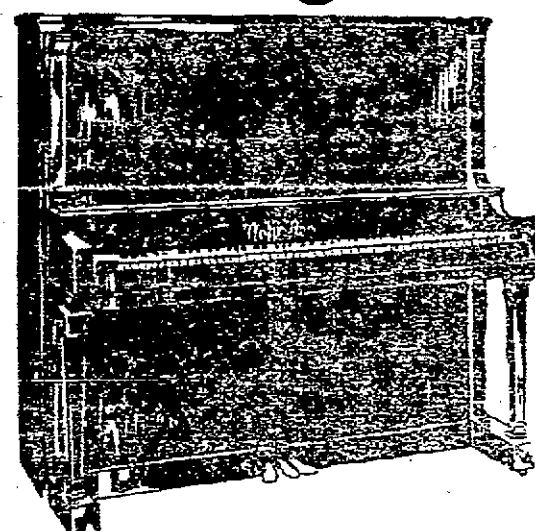

This is absorbed by the antiseptic mucus in the inhaler and now you are ready to breathe it in over the germ-infested membrane, where it will speedily begin its work of killing catarrh germs. Hyomei is made of Australian eucalyptus combined with other antiseptics and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to end catarrh, bronchitis, sore throat, croup, coughs and colds, or money back. It cleans out a stuffed up head in a few minutes.

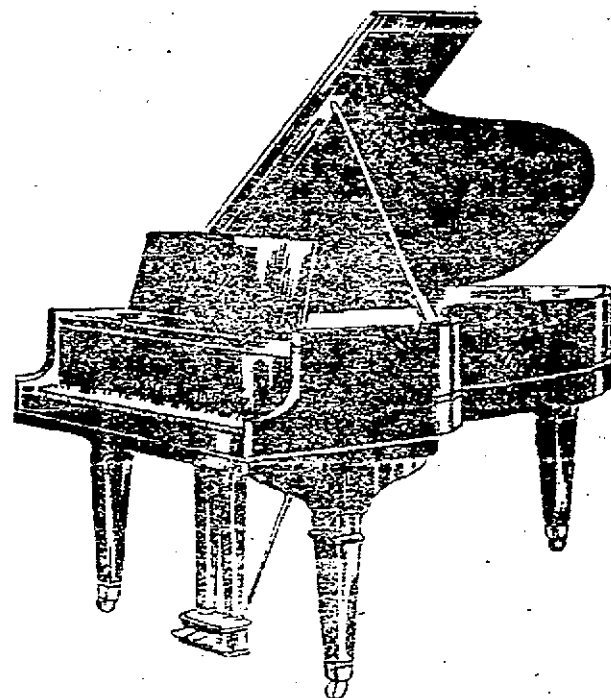

Sold by druggists and by The Owl Drug Co. Complete outfit is inexpensive and includes inhaler. And remember that extra bottles, if afterwards needed, cost only a trifling sum. Breathe it, that's all.

To break up cold in head or chest in a few minutes, pour a teaspoonful of Hyomei into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe the vapor.—Advertisement.

SUPPORT AND CO-OPERATION.

The president of the Rotary Club of America, in a speech before the Chamber of Commerce, Commercial Club yesterday, discussed, among other things related to the civic life of Oakland, the newspapers. Here is an extract from Mr. Albert's address:

The city of today needs a voice. It must make vocal its devotion to the general welfare. Its best voice is its newspapers. No newspaper can serve Oakland fully which has not the support of the men of Oakland. The best newspaper in Massachusetts is not in the largest city of the state, but in one of the smallest. If Oakland would possess the best newspaper of the Pacific Coast she has the opportunity for the fulfillment of that opportunity she needs merely this one thing: that its newspapers shall have the full support of its best men.

These remarks are interesting and true with certain limitations. The city of today needs a chorus of voices, in harmony. Unfortunately for many cities newspapers have been their exclusive spokesmen for progress and their efforts have been negated to a degree by the somnolence and indifference of the people. We believe, however, a new spirit is manifesting itself in the life of modern American cities. The value of system and co-operation has been established and the people of cities are devising other spokesmen of progress. The Chamber of Commerce is one instrument of community expression. It will become effective and trustworthy in exact proportion to the degree it is representative of the business life. It may become ideally representative if every business and professional man interested in civic progress becomes a member.

The newspaper which aspires to be a voice for the city is enthusiastically for a Greater Commercial Organization. It is for it and behind it because it knows co-operation will further the common ambitions as nothing else can. The progressive, "best" newspaper knows that the common goal for which both are striving will make affinities of the greater commercial organization and the best newspaper. Each will inevitably have the support of the other.

This is the manner in which The TRIBUNE expects to retain the support of the best men of Oakland; it expects to give its best efforts to the interests of Oakland and the other east bay cities. The TRIBUNE wants to be ONE of the voices of the city. The Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club will be another one and the bigger it is the more effective will be its work and the harmony of the whole chorus.

THE UTAH EXECUTION.

The case of Joseph Hillstrom, executed at Salt Lake City this morning in conformity with the sentence imposed by the courts for murder in the first degree, has been given undue prominence by the interference of the President. Hillstrom was sentenced to die October 1st, but on the request of the President on September 30th Governor Spry of Utah granted a reprieve. The first request for a stay of execution was based on the representations of the Swedish Minister.

A few days ago President Wilson made a second request that the sentence of the court be not imposed. At no time since the President first interested himself in the case has he submitted any new evidence, circumstances or otherwise. He intimated, with questionable taste, that justice had not been done, but neither he nor any of Hillstrom's friends have attacked the court proceedings. Hillstrom was represented ably by three groups of attorneys.

Briefly, the President made a specific request that the laws of Utah be not carried out in an individual case. Had he given any cause whatever for his action the authorities of Utah would have been pleased to have complied. They even have made independent investigations and tried in every way to find some ground for revising the sentence. The Governor of Utah has replied in firm tone to the President in saying that he cannot and will not permit interference in the administration of justice in Utah without cause.

That is the status of the case between the State and Federal authorities. The question of capital punishment cannot be discussed so long as the Utah laws impose it; the request of the Swedish Minister was considered for a reasonable time; the threats of the I. W. W. to retaliate if Hillstrom was executed served to strengthen the purpose of the authorities, if they had any effect at all.

Stripping the case of all sentiment, the outside observer must regret that the President did not support his request for clemency with some reasons of which the executive and judicial authorities of Utah might have taken cognizance, and entertain a certain amount of admiration for Governor Spry in preventing diplomatic courtesy from interfering with the course of justice.

A DEFENSE OF DANIELS.

A somewhat astonishing article appears in the November number of the North American Review over the signature of Rear-Admiral John R. Edwards. It is for the most part a highly eulogistic appreciation of the Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels. The whole tenor of article is illustrated by this passage:

The work of Secretary Daniels has been one of distinct and important accomplishments. His integrity of purpose has never been assumed. His receptiveness for counsel is exceedingly marked. His deep affection for the service ought best be reflected by his memories of the Spanish-American war. Admiral Dewey certifies that at no period in the history of our Nation has the morale of the Naval Service been higher. Surely it ought to be written of one of whom such tribute can be justly paid that in administering efficiently the great trust reposed in him he has upheld the best traditions of the Navy.

That Mr. Daniels authorized the publication of the story of himself goes without saying; that he, by implication perhaps, ordered it prepared and utilized his Raleigh newspaper experience in an editorial way may also be accepted without important qualification. But it is one of the biggest literary sensations of the present season of administration literature that an officer of the navy might have written the above-quoted statement of his own volition and with a thorough knowledge of his subject.

In what respect has Mr. Daniels' administration been one of distinct and important accomplishment? What has he done? Nothing of proven value and much calculated to decrease the efficiency of the naval service. To his doubtful credit we may place the Naval Board of Civilian Advisors. These may, and we hope they will, render good service to the nation, but the plan has not worked out successfully in other countries. Moreover, it is plain that political capital had more to do in devising this project than naval efficiency. On the other hand Mr. Daniels has lowered measurably the standard of examination for pay and other officers; he bought one hundred thousand pairs of pajamas for the sailors which were never used and had to be sold at a big loss; he has compromised the standing of the officers with the enlisted men; he wanted to issue an order that officers eat at the same table with enlisted men, but had his mind changed for him. He forced men who told the truth about target practice and deficiency in marksmanship off the general staff. He has concealed from the public the unseaworthy condition of naval units without giving any assurance that the defects would be remedied. From all quarters come reliable reports that the navy personnel is disappointed and disgusted with the administration of the secretary's office to a degree never known before. He has brought forward new construction work with less speed than any secretary before under similar conditions.

"His deep affection for the service ought best be reflected by his memories of the Spanish American war" is as far as Admiral Edwards was justified in going.

VICTIM OF THE SEAMAN'S BILL.

The following message was sent yesterday by the commander of the Great Northern Steamship Company's steamer Minnesota, formerly running between Seattle and China, Japan and the Philippines:

To the Good People of the Port of San Francisco:
The Great Northern steamship Minnesota, the finest ship that ever sailed the sea, and the largest ship flying the American flag, is now passing down by your beautiful city, bound for a foreign country, never again to return with Old Glory floating from her stern.

The reason for this is well known to the business interests of the country.
I bid you all farewell.
THOMAS W. GARLICK, Commander.

Representative William Worth Bailey of Texas justifies his alignment in the Bryan corner of the Democratic corral with almost brutal frankness. The President's program for preparedness, he says, "reverses Democratic traditions and departs sharply from Democratic principles." Mr. Bailey is quite correct in his resume of reasons, but he is utterly wrong in his conclusion that because the traditions and principles of the Democratic party are opposed to any measure of national defense the nation must remain undefended. As a Republican vote-getter Mr. Bailey goes near the head of the class, next to Mr. Bryan, Mr. Tumulty, Mr. Redfield and Mr. Daniels.

We are reminded at intervals that the courts are still grinding away on the injunction proceedings against the municipality of San Francisco, begun by the United Railways. Injunctions were once supposed to enjoin, but in this case they very clearly failed to do so. What will happen must await the eternal mystery of legal processes, which have already so bedeviled the issues that the general understanding is at sea as to just what it is all about.

Comptroller Williams, a Washington dispatch informs us, recommends legislation which will enable the department of justice to prosecute usurers in the matter of farm loans. There seems to be a studied effort on the part of the administration to corral the rural vote. Why specially guard farm loans? A lot of people struggling on other lines to make a living might with equal justice be protected from usurers.

NOTES and COMMENT

Thornwell Mulally enjoys the tremendous distinction of getting hurt just like the king. While inspecting soldiers he fell off his horse.

King Albert of Belgium is reported as being grateful, but the dispatch stops short of telling what for. There isn't a whole lot in the situation to ruble him to death.

When a ship is sunk by a submarine some people are afraid it will promote a new war, but very soon the big-hole sealows up all the data.

There is some wonder as to what Newt New will do with his plaque if things at court turn out so that he will have to store his effects for a time.

Interest is attracted immediately to a news item that presages a change in the style of laborers' garments. The facts leaked out at a session of the Garment Workers' Association. Blue overalls are to give way to plaid. Supplementary information is to the effect that it is a matter of dyes, and isn't dictated from Paris.

The elder Caminetti regrets that the younger Caminetti traded on his position as a high government official. Really the situation isn't nice, and the regrets do not improve it.

We rather expected that T. R. would not become enthusiastic over the President's proposed preparedness program, much as he likes alliteration and despite the fact that he is the arch apostle of such policy. It doesn't seem to be so much the policy as the person who arrived first with it, and how it is to be carried out.

Dr. Cook, who flourished for a very brief spell as the discoverer of the North Pole, claims some English officials laughed at him, and demands that this country take it up. The "doctor" really does not appear to realize how much provoking he is. This last complaint is the funniest stunt of all. It is enough to make a horse laugh.

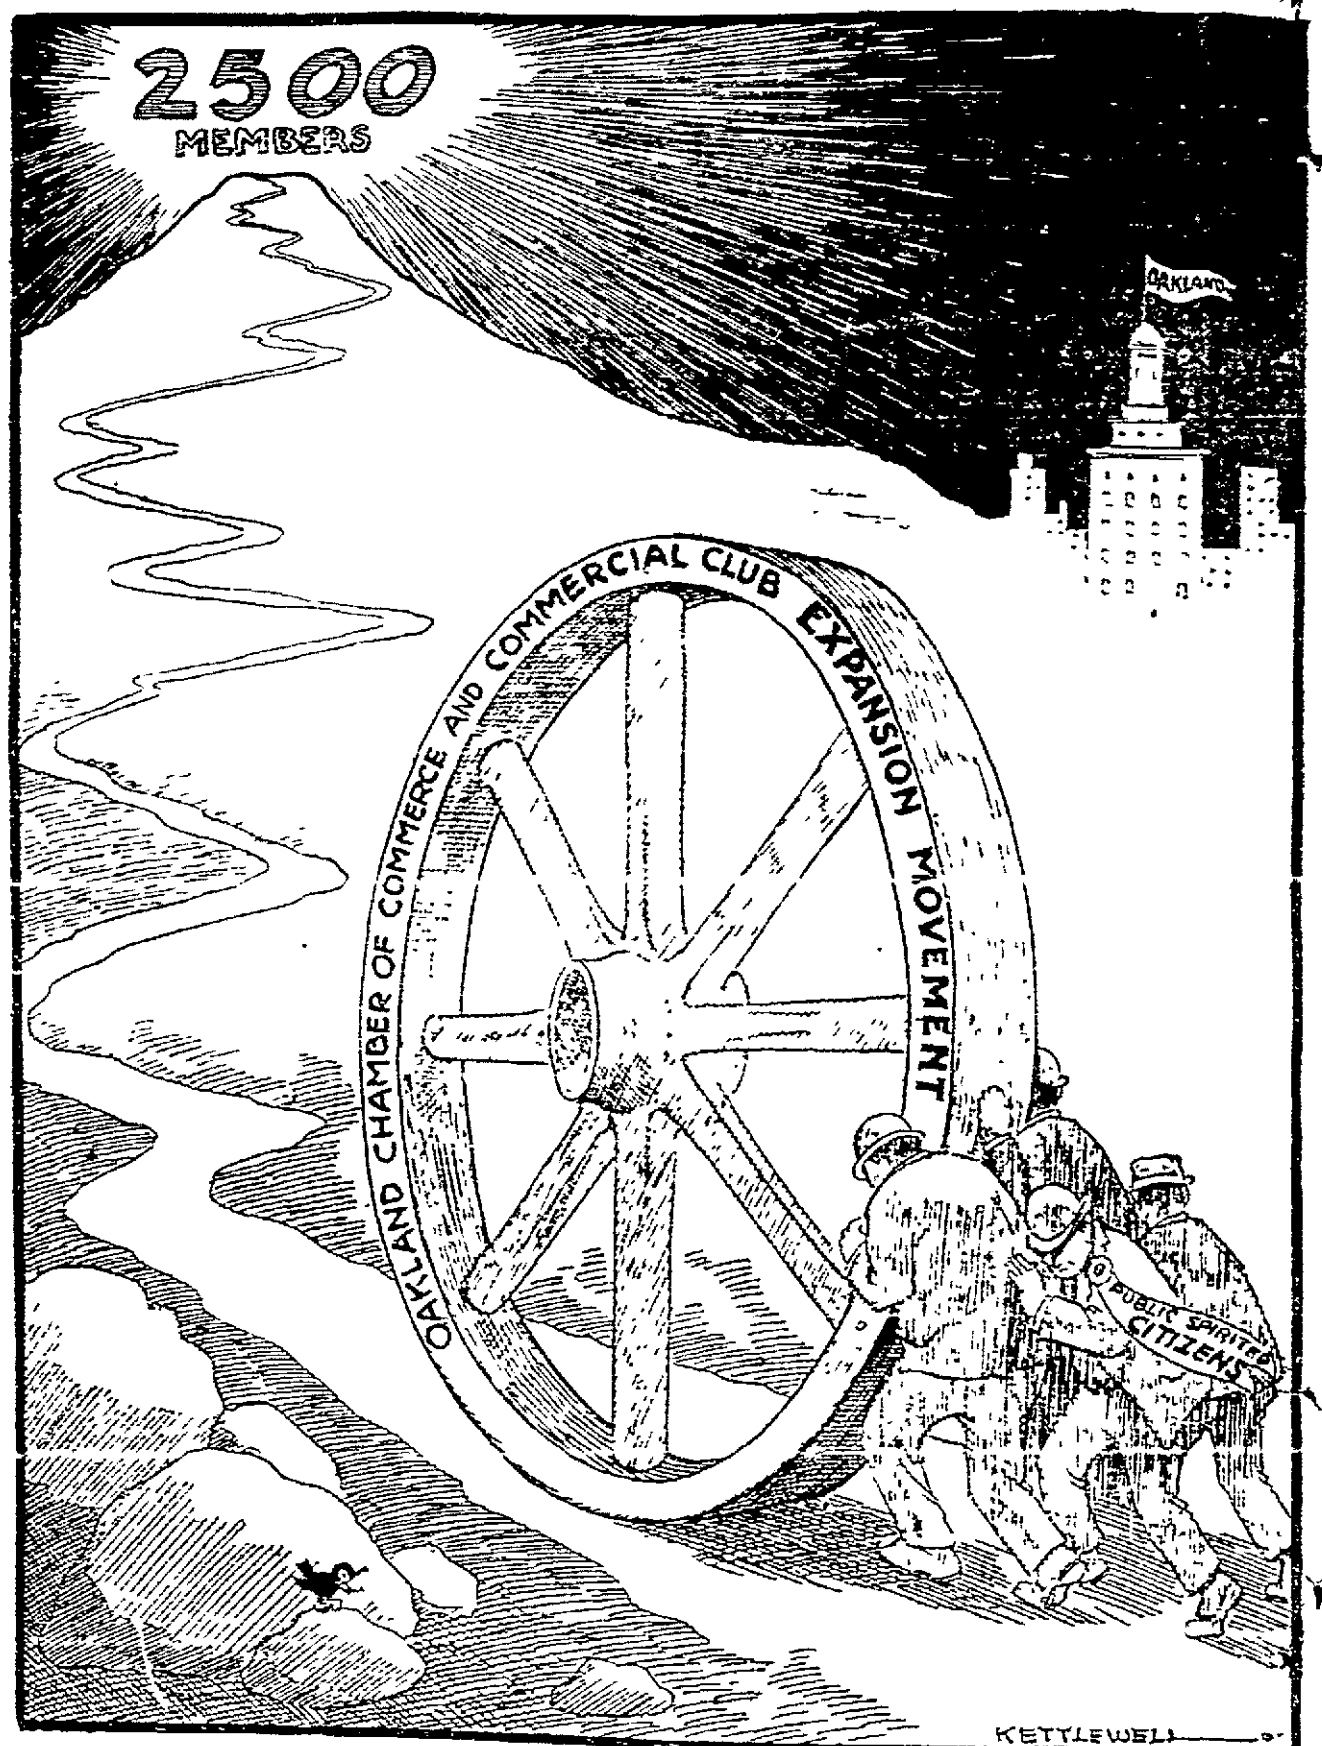

FAVORS MERCHANT MARINE.

Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts participated in a debate on the upholding of the American merchant marine recently at a session of the Academy of Political Science of New York City. Other speakers were Senators Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida and Robert L. Owens of Oklahoma.

In the course of his remarks Senator Weeks said that this country now pays to foreign owners of ships $200,000,000 a year to transport American products abroad. In the event of a great foreign war, he said, an ample merchant marine would be invaluable because it would enable America to continue exporting regardless of the war whereas now, if it were not for the superior British and French rates, American exportation would be stopped.

"We need a merchant marine for mercantile and naval purposes," said Senator Weeks. "We should repeal any legislation like portions of the seamen's bill, which militate against this development. We should follow the practice of all other nations, which has resulted in the development of shipping by giving sufficient aid to overcome the difference in costs which stand as a handicap against our shipping. Such aid should only apply in cases where the operation cannot be conducted profitably and only continue as long as that condition prevails, such aid being based on the service performed either in carrying mails or furnishing ships for auxiliary purposes."

ADMIRALTY ORDERS ARE DISCLOSED

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—What purport to be the frequently mentioned but never published British Admiralty instructions to the masters of merchant ships regarding the use of neutral flags to escape the submarine menace, are printed by Captain Kuehlwetter in the Lokal Anzeiger. The German Admiralty referred to these instructions at the outset of the submarine campaign and in the diplomatic correspondence regarding the sinking of the Lusitania.

The first of the regulations as printed by the Lokal Anzeiger is undated, but apparently was issued at the beginning of the submarine campaign. It takes the form of a telegram from the British Admiralty, communicable to all ships, and is as follows:

"British shipping is instructed to maintain a sharp watch for submarines and show either the flag of a neutral country or none at all, so long as the ship is in the vicinity of the British Isles. The British flag must be shown on meeting British or allied warships. House flags must not be carried and marks and home ports must be effaced.

"Flags which should be used according to the above are the following: American, Italian, Scandinavian and Holland."

CONFIDENTIAL ADVICE.
The second document is a decree of "Commander-in-Chief Devonport," dated March 15, which reads:

"Confidential.—Carrying neutral flag; use of false names.

"Neutral flags: Ships upon long voyages and upon regular voyages about the United Kingdom shall be equipped with neutral flags if they carry a valuable cargo. The neutral flag shall be carried according to route as follows:

"Route Bristol Channel and Southern part of the Irish Channel, Norwegian, Greek or Italian flag.

"Route Liverpool, Glasgow and northern part of Irish Channel, Spanish or Norwegian flag.

"Route eastern coasts of the Kingdom, some Scandinavian flag, or

Says Gun Is for War, Not Hunting

Meanwhile Game Eats Crop in France

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Emile Constant expressed regret in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday that there were men in France who preferred hunting with a gun than going to the front with it. He interrogated the Minister of Agriculture, Jules Méline, concerning the reasons for the government permitting hunting with firearms.

M. Méline replied that trapping had failed to keep down the game. The damage to crops, he said, had become so great that, indeed, pheasants and rabbits, something had to be done. Therefore, permission to hunt had been granted. Besides, game coming into Paris in quantities would lower the price of meat.

CADETS TO DANCE.
Tonight Company N, First Regiment, League of the Cross Cadets, will hold its nineteenth annual military ball at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Thirteenth and Grove streets. The committee in charge consists of Lieutenant G. J. Brush (chairman), Sergeant Plutz, Sergeant McManus, Sergeant Shields, Corporal Dooley and Privates Burke and Ryken.

South of Hartlepool the flag of Holland or Spain.

"Crossing the channel no flag shall be shown."

HOW TO RAM DIVERS.
Other documents explaining the international propriety of using neutral flags or otherwise disguising ships, and using the shelter of the neutral three-mile zone, bear less directly upon the subject except a paragraph of so-called confidential instructions from the British Admiralty also issued in March, 1915, directing British ships to make every effort to escape because they would be sunk in any case and the crew, even if the vessel were torpedoed, would have time to take to the boats under most circumstances. These instructions are reported to contain this order:

"If a submarine comes to the surface ahead and in the vicinity with open hostile intentions, steer directly at it with the highest speed and keep changing the course, so that the submarine always is dead ahead."

No man named Devonport is mentioned in the British navy list. It is possible the person referred to as "Commander-in-Chief Devonport," may be Lord Devonport, chairman of the port of London authority.

First U. S. Aero Squadron Flies

Six Airships Try Long Distance Feat

FORT SILL, Okla., Nov. 19.—The first Aero Squadron, U. S. A., composed of six airships, sailed from the aviation field here this morning on a flight to the new headquarters of the organization at San Antonio, Tex. Fifteen minutes after the first machine, carrying Captain B. D. Foulois, commanding, was in the air, the entire squadron was on its way southward.

The flight is the first of its kind attempted by army aviators and is being made under conditions as nearly like those encountered in war time as is possible. The air men will fly close together and it is planned to complete the journey in six days.

The flight will end on Wednesday on the government reservation grounds at Fort Sam Houston unless accidents or bad weather interfere. The squadron is composed of fifteen aviators and ninety men. Those who did not fly today accompanied the motor equipment by land with equipment for making repairs.

Mrs. Baldwin Buys Fine British Dogs

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Six of the finest dogs of England, costing $15,000, have been purchased by Mrs. Anita Baldwin, heiress of the late millionaire, "Lucky" Baldwin, and are coming west in a special private car.

The six aristocrats of the British kennels will appear in public here for the first time next week when the exposition bench show opens. There are three English bulldogs and three airedales.

Mrs. Baldwin's kennel expert met the six dogs in New York and is coming with them across the continent. They are the most noteworthy addition made recently to any California kennel. From her Santa Anita ranch, formerly the home of "Lucky" Baldwin, Mrs. Baldwin will bring her blooded Russian wolf hounds.

"A GOOD SOLDIER."
By JACK LONDON.
"Young man, the lowest aim in your life is to be a good soldier. The good soldier never tries to distinguish right from wrong. He never thinks; never reasons; he only obeys. If he is ordered to fire on his fellow citizens, on his friends, on his neighbors, on his relatives, he obeys without hesitation. If he is ordered to fire down a crowded street when the poor are clamoring for bread, he obeys, and see the gray hairs of age stained with red and the life tide gushing from the breasts of women, feeling neither remorse nor sympathy. If he is ordered off as one of a firing squad to execute a hero or a benefactor, he fires without hesitation, though he knows the bullet will pierce the noblest heart that ever beat in human breast."

"A good soldier is a blind, heartless, soulless, murderous machine. He is not a man. He is not even a brute, for brutes only kill in self-defense. He is a human in him, all that is divine in him, all that constitutes the man, has been sworn away when he took the enlistment roll. His mind, conscience, eye, his very soul, are in the keeping of any person. 'No man can fall lower than a soldier—it is a depth beneath which we cannot go.'"

One of Jack London's literary efforts has been barred from the United States mails.

It is a dissertation on the soldier, in which the famous Oakland characterizes him as a "blind, heartless, soulless, murderous machine," and in which he declares that to be a good soldier is the lowest aim of life. Postmaster-General A. S. Burleson, at Washington, D. C., has issued orders that envelopes bearing London's words in red ink shall be barred from the mails.

The envelopes have been distributed in many of the large Eastern cities by persons who are opposed to the policy of preparedness. Burleson has acted under section 212 of the criminal code, which excludes from the mails all matter which carries openly any reflection on the character or conduct of any person. The attack is regarded by the Washington authorities as the most bitter which has come to their notice in years.

"REFLECTS ON ARMY."
"The good soldier never tries to distinguish right from wrong," London's censured statement reads. "He never thinks; never reasons; only obeys. If he is ordered to fire on his fellow citizens, on his friends, on his neighbors, on his relatives, he obeys without hesitation."

Then again: "A good soldier is not a man. He is not even a brute, for brutes only kill in self-defense. All that is human in him, all that is divine in him, all that constitutes the man, has been sworn away when he took the enlistment roll."

The postmaster-general considers that all printed or written material that reflects on the integrity, honor and character of the men who belong to Uncle Sam's army. Section 212 of the criminal code, he has decreed, covers just this point. It provides that all printed or written material which slanders or reflects upon any person or persons is illegal and ineligible to the United States mails.

London wrote "A Good Soldier" several years ago, shortly after he had come into prominence as a radical writer and propagandist for the Socialists. Probably the most offensive part of the statement, the authorities say, is the closing line, which reads:

"No man can fall lower than a soldier—it is a depth beneath which we cannot go."

Billions Lost in Hunters' Sport

Birds Slain Are Worth That to Farmers

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Destruction of birds, according to Colonel G. C. Shields, president of the League of American Sportsmen, costs the United States a billion dollars a year. Colonel Shields made this assertion in an address before the Chicago Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution today.

"Cotton growers," he said, "lose $100,000,000 a year by the boll weevil. Why? Because the quails, the prairie chickens, the meadow larks and other birds, which were formerly there in millions, have been swept away by thoughtless, reckless men and boys."

The chin ch bug costs wheat growers another $100,000,000, he said, and the Hessian fly $100,000,000.

"It takes more than 2000 chin ch bugs to weigh an ounce and nearly 50,000 Hessian flies to weigh the same," continued the speaker. "A quail killed by an expert in Ohio had in its crop 1000 chin ch bugs. Another killed in a Kansas wheat field had 2000 Hessian flies."

Colonel Shields added that potato growers pay $1,000,000 a year for spraying poisons and remarked that a quail slain in Pennsylvania had 157 potato bugs in its crop. He said that Mrs. Margaret M. Nice of the faculty of the Massachusetts State University, after long study, estimated that a quail destroys 1000 bugs and six million weed seeds annually.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Heavy gales and rain whipped the Atlantic coast from Jacksonville to Eastport, Maine, and the conditions prevailed through the Great Lakes region and the Ohio valley during the night, in what the Weather Bureau officials described as "one of the most remarkable storm developments in many years." The two storms early today were heading toward each other.

PLANS LAID BY GRANGE CONVENTION

That the placing of loans on farms and for rural development cannot be safely left to private capital, that the government should supervise and protect farm loans, and that a reduction of the prevailing rate of interest on farm loans is imperative, is the gist of the resolutions passed this morning by the National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, at the final work of the Oakland convention.

All last night the delegates debated the various phases of the question. With final reports of committee submitted, preparations for the next year's convention were made and the final session of the convention was held this morning on the last day of its session in Oakland. Tonight, following the institution ceremonies, the Grangers will disband to meet next year in Washington, D. C.

The issue of military preparedness, taken up last evening as a special order of business, resulted in a resolution approving of government manufacture of ammunition until such time as universal peace be attained, demanding that in future the government should operate transportation facilities, and favoring an international police force. Increases of the army and navy were opposed.

MOVE TO ENFORCE REDLIGHT LAW

Eighteen Lodging House Keepers Are Served With Warnings.

Notifications to eighteen lodging house keepers that if they continue to rent rooms to women of irregular life they will be prosecuted under the Redlight Abatement Act, has caused two lodging houses to go out of business, and another to announce the intention of doing so, according to Mrs. Helen Sweet, chief secretary of the Redlight Abatement League. The league has also caused clerks and proprietors to exercise greater caution in permitting women to register at their homes.

Mrs. Artida, since Chief Woods has been head of the police department, and has afforded the greatest possible aid in her of fighting social vice.

In case of an arrest the proprietor is informed that an arrest has been made at his house, the charge being that his rooms were used for immoral purposes, and that a second arrest on the same ground will be the signal for prosecution under the abatement act. Successful prosecution would mean that the premises could not be used for lodging house or hotel purposes for one year.

There had the co-operation of the police and the district attorney's office, said Mrs. Artida. "These notifications have been sent out by the district attorney's office. They will be used as evidence that the proprietors have been warned, in case we decide to prosecute."

"I have advised the proprietors to be sent to certain cafes in the city. Moral conditions have been considerably improved."

Italian Sailings Are Not Stopped

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The Austro-German submarine campaign in the Mediterranean will make but little difference in sailings from New York to Italian ports and cause but slight rearrangement of schedules, steamship agents announced today. A statement that all sailings for Italian ports had been canceled was denied.

OWES ALIMONY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—A judge today found that a man is in arrears in his alimony and that he is harboring an affinity in the person of Miss Grace Wright, at his home, 849 Laurel street, Alameda. Mrs. Wright, who is the mother of a child, asked for a citation against Elmer H. McKinley in an affidavit sworn to in Baltimore, which arrived here today.

McKinley obtained a divorce April 1914 and was ordered to pay $75 a month alimony.

CHICKERING DECREE GRANTED.

An interlocutory decree of divorce was granted Mrs. S. Chickering today by Superior Judge Everett Brown on grounds of extreme cruelty. Court Commissioner Clarence Crowell, who had the evidence under consideration, submitted his conclusions to the court this morning. Chickering, who is now in the East, made no answer to the allegations. Mrs. Chickering petitioned the court to be permitted to resume her maiden name.

CRUSHED BETWEEN CARS.

Charles Taber, of 1649 Eleventh avenue, a conductor on the Piedmont avenue car line, was seriously injured last night at Seventh street and Broadway when an Oakland avenue car failed to take the switch and crushed him between the two cars while he was turning the trolley. Taber was taken to the Emergency hospital, where he was treated by Drs. Irwin and Cone. He will recover.

CITY PAYS SHARE.

District Attorney Hynes today received from the city treasurer a check for $1500 in payment of the city's share in litigation with the Dustless Roadbed Company over patents for oiling roads. Berkeley's share of the bill, amounting to about $400, has not yet been paid. Alameda county joined with other counties in fighting the case, which was in the courts for a long period and won the contest.

Argue for Postal Retirement Fund

A. A. Ammons of London, England, one of the officers of the Postal Employees' Retirement Association of Great Britain, and John J. Devlin, of Washington, D. C., were the guests of honor at a meeting in the city hall last night of members of the Postal Service Retirement Association. Both men are here as delegates to the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Ammons spoke of the retirement and pension system in vogue in England, explaining that it had been obtained for the men through the force of public opinion. He argued for a retirement and pension system for postal employees of the United States.

NO WARNING FOR ANGONA, REPORT

Official Italian Findings Are Submitted to Ambassador Page.

NAPLES, Nov. 19.—The official report of the investigation into the sinking of the Italian steamship Ancona by a submarine off the Tunisian coast, it was announced, was sent to Ambassador Nelson Page, the United States ambassador at Rome, last night.

The investigation reached the conclusion that the submarine fired a shell against the wireless apparatus on the Ancona, without any warning. The captain brought the vessel immediately to a halt.

The submarine having hoisted the Austrian flag, the investigators found, the Ancona was above the boat the Italian ensign, but the flag reached only half way up the mast when the submarine launched a torpedo, which struck the steamer amidship.

The captain of the Ancona, the official account says, ordered the life boats lowered, but while this was being done the submarine continued firing against the steamer's boats. Some of the boats were pierced by shots, obliging the survivors to use their clothes to stop up the holes. In the meanwhile, it is alleged, those on board the submarine jeered the victims.

School Bond Issue for San Leandro Endorsed

SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 19.—That student registration at the San Leandro public school was increased over one-third in the last three years was one of the pleas made for the $12,000 bond issue to be submitted tomorrow for the purpose of building three new schools in this city.

According to a statement by Principal Guy Smith at a mass meeting last night in the school auditorium, the enrollment of pupils three years ago was 516, the following year 538, last year 721, while at the end of this year it will be 800.

Reasons from school trustees and others who adequate school accommodation should be provided, the meeting unanimously endorsed the bonds.

School Trustees Charles A. Jeffery presided over the gathering and was one of the speakers. The others included School Trustees J. N. Santana, F. R. Granger, P. M. Willemin, Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers and Principal Smith.

Effects will be made to secure a large vote tomorrow. There are 1100 voters in the school district and it is hoped to bring a large proportion of them to the polls. Many residents have given the use of their automobiles for this purpose. Those who are present, located in the grammar school, and voting will start at 6 o'clock in the morning and close at 8 o'clock at night. The election officers are: Inspector T. C. Du Bois, judges, W. J. Gannon and Mrs. W. G. Munta.

RUSSIA AND ITALY AT NEXT COUNCIL

Coming War Conference Will Be Held in London Soon.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—The next meeting of the allied war council will be held in London. It is likely the Russian and Italian governments will designate representatives to attend this council.

One session of the war council in Paris this week was held at the foreign office and another presided over by President Poincare at the Elysee palace. In addition the several members of the French and British committees had long consultations apart. Premier Aquino, who is acting temporarily as war secretary, conferred with the French war minister, General Gallieni, A. J. Balfour, first lord of the British admiralty, with Admiral Lacaze, French minister of marine; Premier Briand, who is in charge of the French foreign portfolio, with Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, and Albert Thomas, French under secretary of war for munitions, with David Lloyd George, British munitions secretary. It is understood that an understanding has been arrived at in regard to various subjects and energetic action is expected to result.

LARGEST BATTLERS IN WORLD FOR U. S.

Embargo on Steel Necessary Before Any Craft May Be Built.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Congress may be asked to place a temporary embargo on exports of structural steel to the European belligerents in order to afford a sufficient supply of the metal for use in the construction of the two battleships, bids for which were opened at the navy department on Wednesday.

This plan is suggested as the result of the disclosure that neither of the new battleships can be laid down before next summer because of a lack of steel. The entire output of the American steel plants, it is said, has been taken by the warring nations.

Announcement is made by Secretary Daniels that tentative plans are under consideration for two 36,000-ton battleships to be included in the first year's part of the five-year naval building program. No navy in the world has such large warships as these.

Acting on the theory that Oakland will soon be enjoying its full share of the Spanish speaking trade that has begun to flow to our shores, and that those of us who possess a thorough knowledge of the Spanish language will be far better equipped to reap benefits from this trade, the committee of our city, including Grant Gordon, Superintendent of Schools, Geo. W. Erick, and others, have arranged a 22-lesson "conversational and practical" course of Spanish to be given in Foresters' Hall, 11th and Clay streets, beginning Dec. 12, next. Spanish conversation will be given in the evening, and the course will be held on Mondays and Thursdays. The same lesson will be given three times on each class day, viz: from 12:15 to 1:15, from 5:15 to 6:15, and from 8 to 9 o'clock P. M., and you may attend any class which best suits your convenience. The noted Sr. Oscar Galeano will instruct. But if you contemplate joining you are advised to join now—as the classes are filling very rapidly. Novelist Attempts Suicide in Court

Losing Suit, She Takes
Poison Potion

LONDON, Nov. 19.—(P. M.) "My lord, I told you you were trying to ruin me for life, I have taken enough poison to kill five people," was the dramatic exclamation made by the well-known novelist, Miss Anne Kelly, as she threw upon the floor a bottle, the contents of which she had just swallowed on hearing the court pronounce judgment against her. Miss Kelly, who is 40 years of age, was brought into court by a police officer, and was immediately taken to the hospital, where the doctors believe she has a chance to recover. Miss Kelly's suit, which has been before the court for some days, was a claim for damages against a wholesale book distributing firm for alleged false and malicious statements of fact in their book. The defendant's attorneys refused to circulate the book, as they alleged it contained libel on a fashionable West End dressmaker, whose premises were described as a gambling den. Miss Kelly alleged that the action of the defendant was a deliberate attempt to ruin her for life, and that she had taken the poison as a result of the court's decision against her. The court has ordered that the defendant's attorneys be fined for their conduct.

Mare Island May Build Battleship

One of Two Leviathans to Come West?

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Careful review of the private bids for the hulls and machinery of the two new dreadnaughts authorized by the last Congress has shown finally that none comes within the limit set by Congress. Secretary Daniels is undecided whether new bids will be asked or whether the government will make arrangements to build the ships in its own yards, all of which bid within the $7,800,000 limit. Navy yard estimates fall a million dollars below the lowest private competitor.

Feeds Halls of Almonds to Cows

"Excellent Stimulant," Says Expert

OAKDALE, Nov. 19.—Almonds fed in moderate quantities, not more than three or four pounds a day, are an excellent stimulant for cows and cause them to produce more milk, according to experiments made by A. J. Rinn, agriculture instructor at the high school. A cow on the Ames place was given ordinary feed for a week with some green alfalfa besides. The next week almonds were added to the ordinary ration, and the cow gave one pound more of milk. Nevertheless, cows should not be allowed to eat as much of the nuts as they want, for the almonds, which contain per cent of tannic acid, which in too strong quantity will curdle the stomach. In small amounts, however, the hulls have practically the same result as tea. The hulls of almonds are also used as a needed stimulant, bringing more milk than alfalfa alone will.

Containing about 10,000 signatures, the referendum petition against the proposed removal of the Court House and Hall of Records to a site in Telegraph avenue known as the Delger property, was filed with County Clerk Gross today. Approximately 8800 valid signatures are necessary in order to have the issue placed before the voters. The proposition would be placed on the ballot at the general election next year. The petitioners would probably be filed. County Clerk Gross will commence to verify the signatures next week.

M'NAMIGAL NOT TO GIVE EVIDENCE

Court Rules Against McNamara Evidence Being Brought Against Schmidt.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19.—By a ruling rendered today by Judge Frank P. Wilson, the defense in the case of Matthew A. Schmidt, charged with the murder of one of the twenty victims of the Times explosion five years ago, blocked the plan of the prosecution to introduce through the medium of Otto E. Altmeyer, a confessed dynamite, which is said to have been connected with the alleged dynamiting conspiracy.

Judge Wilson ruled that evidence concerning events occurring prior to October 1, 1910, the date the Times was blown up, could not be brought in. McNamara is said to have made his confession to McNamigal in December, 1910. Although admitting that it had been the intention of the state to have McNamigal testify concerning the McNamara confession, Thomas Lee Woodruff, district attorney, declared that the ruling of the court would not materially hamper the prosecution.

Counsel for Schmidt, however, hailed the ruling as a great victory. C. H. Kingsom, clerk of a hotel at Clinton, Iowa, was on the stand today to identify a hotel register. After describing the register as "the one" at his hotel, February 13, 1910, Kingsom was asked if he could identify the man. When he said he could, McNamigal, who was again in court today, was told to stand up.

"That is the man," said Kingsom. In his confession regarding the dynamiting conspiracy, McNamigal said he went to Clinton to blow up a car. The suitcase he carried, and which he would not permit Kingsom to carry upstairs to his room at the hotel, was filled with dynamite.

LAND GRANT CASE CONFERENCE FUTILE

Plan to Submit to Congress Fails; New Meeting Projected.

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 19.—Without reaching agreement on any plan to submit to Congress for settlement the Oregon-California land grant question, and with provision for another meeting December 1, the conference of representatives of the Southern Pacific Company and a committee of the Oregon-California Land Grant Conference, adjourned yesterday afternoon after a three-hour discussion that at times became heated.

The railroad company was represented by Attorney Ralph Moody and Tax Expert McAllister. The state was represented by Governor Withycombe, Secretary of State Oliver, State Treasurer May, S. M. Garland of Lebanon, L. E. Bean of Eugene, and W. I. Vawter of Medford. C. E. Spence of Oregon City, who was a member of the committee, did not appear.

Failure to agree was caused by difference in interpretation of the resolution adopted just before adjournment of the general conference in September, which provided for the conference yesterday to evolve a plan "whereby the cooperation of the Southern Pacific can be secured in obtaining the Oregon-California land grants to early settlement without further litigation."

Members of the committee attempted to agree on the railroad representatives that the resolution would not have been adopted and yesterday's meeting called had it not been for a speech by P. E. Dunne, Southern Pacific attorney, who advocated the conference, and excerpts from his address were read to show that his idea was that a signed agreement should be entered into at the meeting. Dunne was not present. Attorney Moody asserted that the interpretation of himself and of the Southern Pacific officials was that the railroad representatives here today should receive a proposal from the Oregon committee and take it up with the company's officers.

The resolution providing for another meeting December 1 was moved by Garland and was as follows: "Whereas, it is the expressed desire of the representatives of the Southern Pacific in conference with this committee that they be given time to communicate to the railroad company the views of the committee; therefore be it resolved, That the committee adjourn in view of these premises, until December 1, at 10:30 o'clock."

It was stated that in view of the failure of the railroad to send representatives empowered to enter into an agreement as a result of Attorney Dunne's attitude at the September conference, he was "suspicious of the company's good faith."

WIFE SEES INVENTOR. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—The inventing and promoting business is not remunerative in this day and generation, according to Mrs. Ella D. Bennett, who files a divorce suit today against George S. Bennett, who follows those lines of endeavor. She says she has had to depend for support upon her children.

SUES TO RECOVER PIGS. Suit to recover a Jersey cow and a number of pigs, which it is alleged are unlawfully being withheld from him, was commenced in the superior court yesterday by S. J. Wilson against John Davilla. Plaintiff asks for $700 damages.
